

Gonzalez and Pickrel crowned Marshal and Queen at C.H.S. Homecoming

The Homecoming festivities at Clark High School began with coronation last Tuesday night, where a Marshal and Queen were crowned among eight candidates. Marshal candidates, left in the back, included Christian Gonzalez, Trey Huber, Jack Helkenn and Collin Gaikowski. Queen candidates, left, in the front row, included Ella Wellnitz, Sara Thonvold, Nevaeh Rusher and Madison Pickrel.

Crowned as Marshal and Queen were Christian Gonzalez, bottom right, and Madison Pickrel, top right. Emcees Hannah Heiman and Jerome Enboden were tasked with crowning the royalty, as 2022's Marshal and Queen, Trey Huber and Summer Seefeldt, were unavailable.

During Coronation, all high school classes presented skits for the Homecoming theme - 'Toys.' The junior class' skit was dubbed the winner. The burning of the 'C' followed the coronation ceremony.

Clark Homecoming parade winners for 2023 have been announced

The 2023 Homecoming festivities came to an end last week with the Homecoming football game against the Moberidge-Pollock Tigers, in which the Cyclones won 7-6. It seems tradition that bad weather threatens the homecoming parade, but the weather cooperated and stayed clear until late into the evening, after the game was over.

Judges determined placing of the parade divisions, and the winners were announced at halftime of the football game. The theme this year was 'Toys'. Pictured above are the winners in each category.

Top left, Clark Family Dental took first place in the business division with their 'Toys "R" Us' themed float. Everyone was dressed as a different toy. One of their signs read: 'Cyclones a "r" en't toying around.' Angie Osterloh's Barbie decorated golfcart came in second, representing NCS Corporation. Top right, the juniors earned first place in the high school division with their Magic 8 Ball themed float. Their sign read: 'Will the Cyclones defeat the Tigers? Our sources say yes.' The sophomores snagged second place for their Hot Wheels inspired float.

Bottom left, the GI Joe float made by the sixth grade class won the middle school division. Their sign read: 'Mission: Cyclones take down the Tigers!' The fifth grade class received second place for their beach toys. In the elementary division, the third grade class earned first place with their Hot Wheels costumes. Their sign read: Go with the winner, Cyclones! The first grade class came in second with their Pop it costumes.

It was also announced at halftime that the best decorated business was Clark Golf Club. Dakota Butcher was second and Corner Diner third. This competition was judged and awarded by the Clark-Willow Lake football cheerleaders.
